

GREATER DAYTON CHAPTER
MEETING

February 24, 2009

The Greater Dayton Chapter of ARMA International met on Tuesday, February 24, 2009 at the National Afro-American Museum in Wilberforce, Ohio, at 11:30 A.M. in honor of Black History Month.

In attendance were Chair, Roger Lucas; President, Debbie Andrews; Vice President, Steve Rottert; Secretary, Gillian Hill; Treasurer, Elaine Wintrow; Directors, Jay Brooks, Tina Ratcliff and James Zimmerlin; Program Chair, Cindy Manz; Members, Dave Cooney, Chris Wydman, Chris Abernathy, Sharon Lane, Joan Donovan and Steve French; Guest, Pat Grove (from Warren County) and Speaker, Valena Randolph.

Valena Randolph gave us a brief tour of the special exhibit of African American dolls, and the permanent collection depicting twentieth century African-American life. She encouraged us to go back to the museum exhibits after our lunch meeting to examine them in more detail at our leisure. After a boxed lunch from Oasis Café in Xenia, President, Debbie Andrews, opened the business meeting. Gill announced that three ARMA Great Lakes Region members had been elected to the Board of ARMA International for the year 2009/2010: Nick de Laurentis (from Central Illinois chapter) is to be President Elect, Samantha Lofton (from Frankfurt/Bluegrass chapter), and William LeFevre (from Detroit chapter) are to be new Association Directors. Gill also reminded everyone that the Great Lakes Region Annual Meeting is to be held this year in Lansing, Michigan, July 24-26. President, Debbie Andrews then congratulated Sharon Lane as our chapter Member of the Year.

The meeting was adjourned at 12:45 PM. and everyone was encouraged to spend as much time as they had available wandering around the museum.

Respectfully submitted,

Gillian Hill
Secretary
