Chapter Meeting
March 23, 2010

Date: Tuesday, March 23, 2010

Time: 5:30 Social Time; 6:00 Dinner; 6:30 Meeting & Program

Place: Miami Conservancy District
38 E. Monument Ave.
Dayton OH

Parking available in Miami Conservancy's lot located directly behind building—enter lot from Jefferson Street.

Speaker: Komal Gulich, CRM, of FirstEnergy Corp. and ARMA International's Board of Directors

Program: Generally Accepted Recordkeeping Principles (GARP)

Komal will present the most current information available on ARMA International's new initiative, Generally Accepted Recordkeeping Principles (GARP). GARP is an evolving process. ARMA is seeking to create a single source for recordkeeping best practices that can be used as a basis for ensuring integrity, transparency and accountability in recordkeeping. So far, ARMA has introduced eight guiding principles and the GARP Maturity Model. Go to www.arma.org/garp/ for information on ARMA's step into the future.

Meal: A variety of entrees, salads and desserts catered by Creatif Catering.

Cost: $18 for Members, $20 for Non-ARMA Members. (Due to costs incurred by the Chapter, "No Shows" will be invoiced.)

RSVP: to Cindy Manz at cmanz@miamiconservancy.org or (937) 223-1271 by March 19, 2010.

Thank you,
Program Committee
